Sir

With reference to your docket no: 4388/L.7.51-98 dated 30th September 1899, forwarding for an expression of my opinion a copy of the the Senior Surgeon's letter no: 811, dated 18th September 1899, recommending the increase by one rupee of the pay of Tammaiya, peon attached to the Dispensary at Sirthalli, I have the honour to state that the peon referred to may deserve the increase, but exceptional treatment in his case may induce the other dispensary servants to advance a similar claim, and create an inconvenient precedent. If the Government pleases, all such men in the Taluk may be given an allowance of one rupee.

Most respected Sir

The undersigned begs most humbly to bring the following few lines into Your honour's Kind Consideration and for favourable orders there on. Your honour's humble petitioner is now the peon on Rs. 6 in the Local Fund Dispensary at Tirthahalli. He was formerly the Compounder in the same Hospl. but when the new Scheme was introduced he was obliged to accept the peon's place as he could not Compound Medicines through his ignorance of the English guage. He begs to state that his Service in the Medical Department extends over a period of 23 years. When your honour's humble petitioner represented his case personally to the Senior Surgeon when his honour had come to Tirthahalli on Circuit, his honour was gracious enough to reply that he would Consider your humble servant's case favourably and increase his pay to Rs. 7 on receiving a written application. So your humble servant begs most humbly to forward this humble petition to the Senior Surgeon with your honour's kind support for his promotion to Rs. 7

For which act of Kindness and charity he Shall ever as in duty bound pray for your honour's long life and prosperity.

Begs to remain

Most respected Sir

Your honour's most obedient and humble Servant
